

EDUCATION

- Investing so children are ✓ Nurtured and safe
- ✓ Ready for school
- ✓ Successful in Schools

Education is the cornerstone for individual success in life. Locally, half of our children enter kindergarten without the skills to succeed. Disadvantaged children are even further behind. Most of those children will stay behind and only one in three will graduate. That's why investing in children, especially those most at risk, is a priority.

Your Gifts Help

- Engage parents—a child's first and most important teacher
- Support high quality child care and after school activities
- Connect children with caring adults, mentors and tutors
- Provide support to children with special challenges

Produce Results

- Parents of young children are improving their parenting skills
- Toddlers in child care are meeting state development benchmarks
- Youth at risk of school failure are improving attendance, behavior and study skills so they stay in school and on track to graduate

INCOME

- Investing so families have ✓ Basic needs met
- ✓ Job opportunities
- ✓ Support to build Assets

We believe in making investments to help people in our community get ahead financially. Local foreclosure rates have more than doubled over the last year. Unemployment is high and even people with jobs struggle paycheck to paycheck. Too many people are one unexpected setback from a financial crisis.

Your Gifts Help

- Prevent crisis from escalating to emergencies
- Teach savings and how to avoid predatory lending
- Build necessary skills to secure employment

Produce Results

- People avoid homelessness with rent and utility assistance
- Disadvantaged women are prepared to enter the workforce
- Individuals improve credit scores and savings with financial counseling
- Families avoid foreclosure through housing counseling

HEALTH

- Investing so people ✓ Make healthy choices
- ✓ Have access to care
- ✓ Help the vulnerable

Good health is a basic need that impacts every aspect of daily life. People need healthy environments to live healthy lives. That happens by making healthy choices, accessing affordable health care and assisting our most vulnerable to achieve their full potential.

Your Gifts Help

- Youth and adults struggling with addiction
- Support activities to improve senior health
- Shelter and support victims of domestic violence
- Promote exercise and good nutrition

Produce Results

- Depressed and suicidal youth show decreased symptoms
- Children and adults reduce risk of obesity and diabetes
- Seniors improve their quality of life and keep independent
